

CHLOE

So obviously you've been on dates sometimes and maybe brought home...

LEAH

I know where this is going.

CHLOE

So do you want to talk about that?

LEAH

You're talking about my one night stand?

CHLOE

Yeah.

LEAH

Yeah. I'd recently split up and I went out and got kind of drunk. Actually, I'm not even going to lie, I got very drunk. And I knew the guy, vaguely, from school. And then, you know, just one thing led to another and, you know, he came back to my place and it didn't seem, it felt kind of normal. Like, it felt like...

CHLOE

It is normal.

LEAH

Yeah, it was a completely normal experience. I don't think I'd do it again but I think it's an experience that you should have it in a way to know that you don't want to do it again.
