[INSPIRATIONAL MUSIC PLAYING]

Our nation was founded on a bedrock principle, that we are all created equal.

Seneca Falls, Selma, and Stonewall--

Ordinary people can do extraordinary things.

[DRAMATIC MUSIC PLAYING]

[FUN MUSIC PLAYING]

I want to get you all figured out. Grew up in Kansas, and mama probably baked apple pies. Yo, everybody! This is Danny. Danny, welcome to New York.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

Don't use your real name. It is run by the mob.

We're an organization that fights for gay rights.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

What are you looking at, faggot?

[YELLING]

All right, it's a raid! Up against the wall.

This is what we're fighting.

Why are you all just standing there? Help me!

[MUSIC PLAYING]

We have to fight in a peaceful way, and resist the radicalism that I see starting to take hold.

[GLASS SHATTERING]

I have not seen one dream come true on Christopher Street, baby.

There is no hope. There is no family, Danny.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

I like being mad.

These kids have nothing left to lose.

[MUSIC PLAYING]

I can't love you.

That's not the way, Danny.

It's the only way!

Hey, so, we're having a parade to commemorate the fighting, and we're going to call it the gay liberation march.

I'm coming.
