

The arts past and present

The tutors' opinion

Catharine

Oh God, tutor's comments. I don't want to know. I think that they will probably say that I've still got quite a lot to learn.

Patricia Hays

The Contessa, I was delighted with her performance, absolutely delighted. A very difficult start to the evening, because she's singing Porgi Amore, which for anyone professional or otherwise, would be a huge beginning to the evening.

Mark Hathaway

Catharine particularly because starting the whole evening with a big aria, where everyone is looking at you, and no-one else but you, takes a bit of bottle.
