

[MUSIC PLAYING]

SHAUN: I've been called a retard. I've also been called spastic.

TERRY: I'm just a person.

CIAN: You know, we want to be ourselves for who we are, not what we are.

KELLY EDWARDS: You need to be very caring. And you need to care to make a difference for them.

JO ROACH: I think about situations where, can I take Susie with me to that place? How will she fit in? How will we fit in? I think there's a lot of isolation.

PHIL: I've loved having Bernadette. We were very close, particularly when we were younger and still are, actually.

MARGARET: Well, I personally feel that I'm his voice.

OWEN: Dora goes to a day centre called Daylight. She goes there five days a week and she loves it down there. All her friends are down there. She has a terrific time down there.

DAYO: Since I've been on the telly. I've also done theatre and also done the diploma. Yeah, so, you know, things have been absolutely a step up.

SHAUN: Now I'm a consultant and kicking behind.
